The Data Protection (Commencement, Amendment and Transitional) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2018

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 26th April, 2017<sup>a</sup>, and in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108 and 115 of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017<sup>b</sup> following consultation with the Policy and Finance Committee of the States of Alderney, the Policy and Performance Committee of the Chief Pleas of Sark and the former Commissioner, hereby order:-

PART I PRELIMINARY

Commencement of the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017 and this Ordinance.

1. The Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017 and this Ordinance shall come into force on the 25th May, 2018.

PART II TRANSITION FOR OPERATIVE PROVISIONS

Transitional exemption from duty to notify pre-collected personal data.

2. (1) Until the transition date and subject to subsection (2), a controller is not required to comply with a notification duty in relation to the processing of pre-collected personal data in the context of the controller.

(2) On request by a data subject, a controller exempt from a notification duty by reason only of subsection (1) must give the data subject any information that the notification duty would otherwise have required the controller to

(a) give to the data subject, or

(b) otherwise publish in relation to the pre-collected personal data relating to the data subject.

(3) In this section –

"notification duty" means any duty imposed on a controller by –

(a) section 12(2), (3) or (3A) of the Law,

(b) section 13(1), (2) or (2A) of the Law,

(c) section 17(3) of the Law,

(d) section 18(3) of the Law, or

(e) section 12(2) or (3) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance, and

"pre-collected personal data" means any personal data processed in the context of a controller, where the personal data was collected before the commencement date –

- (a) by the controller, or a processor acting on the controller's behalf, or
- (b) otherwise for the purposes of the processing.

Transitional exemption from duties of joint controllers in relation to continued processing.

3. (1) Until the transition date, a controller is not required to comply with a joint controller duty in relation to continued processing of personal data in the context of the joint controllers concerned.

(2) In subsection (1), "joint controller duty" means any duty imposed on joint controllers by –

- (a) section 33(1) or (3) of the Law, or
- (b) section 28(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

Transitional exemption from impact assessment duties in relation to continued processing.

4. (1) Until the transition date, a controller is not required to comply with an impact assessment duty in relation to continued processing of personal data in the context of the controller.

(2) In subsection (1), "an impact assessment duty" means any duty imposed on a controller –

- (a) to carry out, review or revise an assessment under section 44(1) or (5) of the Law or section 36(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance, or
- (b) to consult the Authority under section 45(2) of the Law or section 37(2) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

Transitional exemption from processor-use duties in relation to continued processing.

5. (1) Until the transition date, a controller is not required to comply with a processor-use duty where –

- (a) the controller causes or permits a processor to carry out processing of personal data in the context of that controller, and
- (b) the processing is continued processing of the personal data in the context of both the controller and the processor concerned.

(2) In subsection (1), "processor-use duty" means any duty imposed on a controller by –

- (a) section 34(1) of the Law, or
- (b) section 29(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

Transitional exemption from processor's duty to establish measures in relation to continued processing.

6. (1) Until the transition date, a processor is not required to comply with a duty to establish measures in respect of the controller, in relation to continued processing of personal data in the context of both the processor and that controller.

(2) In subsection (1), "duty to establish measures" means any duty imposed on a processor by –

- (a) section 35(1)(e) of the Law,
- (b) section 36(3) of the Law, to the extent that it imposes a duty on the processor under section 35(1)(e) of the Law, or
- (c) section 30(1)(e) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

Transitional exemption from processor's duty to obtain controller authorisation for secondary processors.

7. (1) Until the transition date, a processor is not required to comply with a duty to obtain authorisation from the controller in relation to a secondary processor where –

- (a) the processor is carrying out continued processing of personal data in the context of both the processor and that controller, and

- (b) the processor had, before the commencement date, engaged the secondary processor concerned to process that personal data.

(2) In subsection (1) –

"duty to obtain authorisation" means any duty imposed on a processor by –

- (a) section 36(1) of the Law, or
- (b) section 31(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance, and

"secondary processor", in relation to section 36(1) of the Law or section 31(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance, has the meaning given by the respective provision.

Meaning of "continued processing".

8. (1) For the purposes of sections 3 to 7, processing of personal data ("the processing concerned") is continued processing in the context of a controller or processor where processing of the same kind as the processing concerned –

- (a) was carried out on the personal data in the context of the controller or processor concerned lawfully, in accordance with the former Law, before the commencement date, and

- (b) is continued in the context of the controller or processor concerned after the Law comes into force.

(2) Whether any processing carried out in the context of a controller or processor before the commencement date ("the previous processing") is of the same kind as the processing concerned must be determined having regard to the nature, scope, context and purpose of the previous processing in comparison to the processing concerned, including whether or not the processing concerned involves the use or application of a technology, mechanism or procedure that was neither used nor applied in the previous processing.

Transitional provision for processing by public authorities based on legitimate interest.

9. Until the transition date, paragraph 4 of Schedule 2 to the Law has effect as if –

- (a) immediately after "party", a full stop were substituted for the comma, and
- (b) the words "except where the processing is in the context of the exercise or performance by a public authority of a function or task described in paragraph 5" were omitted.

Delayed effect of section 14 (right to data portability) of the Law

10. (1) Until the transition date, neither section 14 of the Law nor any corresponding provision has effect.

(2) In subsection (1), "any corresponding provision" means any provision of section 6 of the Law, or of any other section of the Law, so far as the provision corresponds to a right or duty in section 14 of the Law.

Reporting of personal data breaches occurring before commencement.

11. (1) A controller or processor is required to comply with a duty to report a personal data breach regardless whether the breach occurred before or after the Law comes into force.

(2) However, a controller is not required to comply with a duty to report a personal data breach unless the controller first becomes aware of the personal data breach after the Law comes into force.

(3) In this section, "a duty to report", in relation to any personal data breach, means a duty to give notice of the breach –

(a) imposed on a controller by any of the following provisions –

(i) section 42(2) or 43(1) of the Law, or

(ii) section 34(2) or 35(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance, or

(b) imposed on a processor by any of the following provisions –

(i) section 42(1) of the Law, or

- (ii) section 34(1) of the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

PART III
SAVING OF CONSENTS, PROCEEDINGS AND OTHER MATTERS

Validity of consents obtained before commencement.

12. (1) This section applies to consent to the processing of personal data where –

- (a) the consent was given by the data subject before the commencement date,
- (b) the consent had effect as consent for that processing under the former Law immediately before the commencement date,
- (c) the consent was not given on the basis of false, deceptive or misleading information or conduct, knowingly or recklessly provided or perpetrated by –
  - (i) the controller,
  - (ii) the processor, or
  - (iii) any other person who sought the consent or to whom the consent was given, and
- (d) the data subject has not withdrawn the consent –

- (i) by giving written notice to the controller, or
- (ii) by any other means provided for by the controller.

(2) Where a consent to which this section applies also meets the definition of a consent in section 10(1) and all the other requirements and conditions in section 10 of the Law for consent to be valid for the purposes of the Law, the consent has effect as consent to that processing for the purposes of the Law and the Law Enforcement Ordinance.

(3) In any other case, despite any provision to the contrary in section 10 of the Law, a consent to which this section applies must be regarded as consent to that processing for the purposes of the Law and the Law Enforcement Ordinance until the earlier of –

- (a) the data subject withdrawing the consent –
  - (i) by giving written notice to the controller, or
  - (ii) by any other means provided for by the controller, or
- (b) the occurrence of the transition date.

Prior designation and notification of Bailiwick representatives.

13. A controller is not required under section 38(2)(a) to (c) of the Law to designate a representative, notify the Authority of the name and contact details of the representative or authorise the representative to receive notices and other communications if, before the commencement date, the controller has so designated a representative, so notified the former Commissioner or so authorised the representative.

Saving of authorisation for transfer to unauthorised jurisdictions.

14. An authorisation by the former Commissioner under paragraph 9 of Schedule 4 to the former Law for the transfer of personal data to an unauthorised jurisdiction in force immediately before the commencement date has effect as if it were an authorisation for the transfer given by the Authority under section 57(1) of the Law until the authorisation is revoked by the Authority.

Saving of proceedings, etc. under former Law.

15. (1) Any proceedings under the former Law not cancelled, withdrawn or finally determined before the commencement date –

- (a) continue to have effect,
- (b) may be cancelled, withdrawn or amended, and
- (c) may otherwise be continued, proceeded upon, completed and finally determined, in accordance with the provisions of the former Law, as if –

- (i) the former Law had not been repealed, but
- (ii) the former Commissioner were substituted with the Authority.

(2) Subsection (3) applies to any legal proceeding (other than proceedings of the kind saved by subsection (1)), not cancelled, withdrawn or finally determined before the commencement date –

- (a) in relation to any act or omission of the former Commissioner in the former Commissioner's official capacity or in connection with the discharge of former Commissioner's official functions, and
- (b) to which the former Commissioner is a party.

(3) Proceedings to which this subsection applies –

- (a) continue to have effect,
- (b) may be cancelled, withdrawn or amended, and
- (c) may otherwise be continued, proceeded upon, completed and finally determined, as if the Authority were a party to those proceedings instead of the former Commissioner.

(4) In subsection (1), "proceedings under the former Law" includes

- (a) a request made under section 7 of the former Law,
- (b) a claim for compensation made under section 13 of the former Law,

- (c) an application for rectification, blocking, erasure or destruction under section 14 of the former Law,
- (d) a request for assessment made under section 42 of the former Law,
- (e) any assessment or determination made by the former Commissioner under the former Law,
- (f) an information notice or a special information notice served under section 43 or 44 of the former Law, respectively,
- (g) an enforcement notice served under section 40 of the former Law, and
- (h) any appeal made under the former Law.

Offences under former Law.

16. (1) Where a person commits an offence under any provision of the former Law wholly or partly before the commencement date, the person may be charged and proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of the former Law, as if –

- (a) the former Law had not been repealed, but
- (b) the former Commissioner were substituted with the Authority.

(2) In section 100(1)(b)(ii)(A) of the Law, the reference to an offence under section 88(2) of the Law is deemed to include a reference to an offence under paragraph 11 of Schedule 8 to the former Law.

(3) In paragraph 10 of Schedule 8 to the Law (including that provision as applied by section 48 of the Law Enforcement Ordinance), the reference to an offence under the Law is deemed to include a reference to an offence under the former Law.

(4) In sections 43(8) and 44(9) of, and paragraph 11(1) and (2) of Schedule 6 to, the former Law to the extent that any of those provisions are saved and continued by any provision of this Ordinance, a reference to an offence under the former Law is deemed to include an offence under the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017.

Other things done under former Law.

17. Unless the context requires otherwise, and subject to any provision of this Ordinance to the contrary, anything done or having effect as if done (excluding the making of any Ordinance or subordinate legislation) under or for the purposes of any provision of the former Law has effect as if done under or for the purposes of any corresponding provision of the Law or any Ordinance, Regulations or other subordinate legislation made under the Law.

PART IV
TRANSITION OF RIGHTS, RECORDS, ETC.

Rights, liabilities, records, etc.

18. (1) All assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the former Commissioner in the former Commissioner's official capacity or arising out of the discharge of the former Commissioner's official functions are the assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Authority.

(2) An agreement entered into by the former Commissioner in the former Commissioner's official capacity or in connection with the discharge of the former Commissioner's official functions has effect as if –

- (a) the Authority were a party to it instead of the former Commissioner, and
- (b) any reference to the former Commissioner were, in relation to anything to be done after the Law comes into force, a reference to the Authority.

(3) Any record or requirement made by, any information given to, any document deposited with, any record kept by, or any statement made to, the former Commissioner in the former Commissioner's official capacity or in connection with the discharge of the former Commissioner's official functions at any time before the commencement date is taken, on and from that time, to have been made by, given to, deposited with, kept by or made to, the Authority.

(4) Neither subsection (2) nor (3) limits subsection (1).

(5) The Commissioner must do everything necessary to give effect to subsection (1), (2) and (3), including making or amending any registration, notification or transfer requested by the Authority to give effect to those provisions.

- (6) This section is subject to section 60A of the Law.

PART V
